THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR
16th November 2014

The parable of the talents presented to us in today's Gospel is about using the gifts we have been given. And gifts are only given to us by God – whatever they may be – for service. If your gift is administration, music, teaching, sympathy, etc. etc. how do you use it for the benefit of the community? The guy in the Gospel today, who failed to use his gift – meagre as it was - was condemned. Are you using your gift in the service of others?
